No. 963-6—G. 190, DATED, BANGALORE, 16TH JULY 1894.

ORDER THEREON.—The villages of Turuganur and Basavanhalli in the Tirumakudlu-Narsipur Taluk were granted as Sarvamanyam by His Highness the Maharaja Krishnaraja Wadayar to Nowl Krishna Dass by Sanad dated 8th March 1820 for the maintenance of certain charitable institutions, namely, a chattram, temple, and agrahar at Paschimavahini.

2. These Inams were confirmed by the Inam Department under Rule V, subject to the due and proper maintenance of the institutions above named.

3. These institutions are all reported to be in a condition of decay and desuetude, and the successor of the original grantee Nowl Venkata Dass being called upon for an explanation, offers to surrender the Inam villages to the Government, and prays that the charitable institutions above named may be maintained from their proceeds. The Government are unable to comply with this prayer, but as the objects for which the Inams were granted have failed, and as the representative of the grantee shows no inclination to restore and maintain them, the Government hereby direct the resumption of the villages above named. The Deputy Commissioner will at once assume possession of the villages, and apply to Superintendent of Revenue Survey for the introduction of a Survey and Settlement into them as Government villages.

4. As it is not the wish of the Government to allow charities of some local usefulness to be utterly abolished, they will be willing to make a reasonable grant from the general revenues of the State to the Muzarayi Department for the restoration and maintenance of the chattram and temple as Government Muzarayi Institutions.

No. 745-6—Muz. F. No. 31-94, dated Bangalore, 17 th August 1904.

Order.—The Government in the Financial Department having, in Proceedings No. 825-6 dated 11th August 1904, sanctioned the disbursement of the arrears of the vritti amounts of the Nowl Krishna Das Agrahar at Paschimavahini from 1886 to 1894, and having also conveyed their sanction to the fixed payments of the vritti allowances with effect from 1903-04 together with the arrears due to the temples and the chattram from 1894-95 to the end of 1902-03, the following instructions are issued in the matter of the disposal of these amounts.

2. The entire sum of Rs. 4,411-10-0, being the arrears for the period from 1886 to 1894 sanctioned in para 3 of the Government Order referred to above, should at once be drawn by the Deputy Commissioner of the Mysore District and be held in deposit. The amount so far as it relates to the vritties appertaining to the chattram must be utilized for repairing that institution. The archak of the Pattabhi Ramaswami temple (Annasami Ramanujiengar) has already received payment of the arrears due to him from 1886 to 1894.

3. The personal vrittidars, who are reported to have shown no inclination till now to build the Agrahar houses on the sites already selected by the Deputy Commissioner at Seringapatam, must be given a final chance with one year's time, to carry out the conditions offered to them in the order of December 1894, and distinctly warned that the promise then made will be finally withdrawn and cancelled after the expiry of this period. The arrears of the vritti allowance from 1886 to 1894 may however be utilized in giving to such of the vrittidars as show an inclination to build houses and live in the Agrahara, a suitable advance for such construction on their giving proper and adequate security. The Deputy Commissioner is requested to see that when an advance is made, the vrittidars actually build and live in their houses and perform the conditions of the grant within one year of such advance being made. The Agrahar houses should be built in accordance with an approved plan and in a suitable and healthy locality.

4. The sum of Rs. 3,727-14-0 ordered to be similarly refunded to the Muzrai Department, in para 5 of the above Proceedings, as being the arrears due to the marginally noted three temples and the chattram (including the Sadavarth Dharma) for 9 years from 1894-95 to 1902-03 should likewise be drawn, and after making the payments to the archaks of the respective temples as detailed in para 5 of the Proceedings above mentioned (if they had regularly attended to the puja work during the period in question), the balance of Rs. 1,491-3-0 payable to the chattram should also be held in deposit.

Rameswara temple,
Pattabhi Ramaswamy temple
Anjaneyaswami temple.
Chattram and the Sadavarth Dharma.

5. The Government having in para 7 of the above quoted Proceedings fixed the vritti allowances payable to the temples and the chattram as noted in the margin, monthly payments at those rates should be made to the temples. The amount due to the chattram, viz., Rs. 13-12-0 should be regularly drawn every month and added on to the deposit amount, after meeting the care-taker's pay sanctioned in para 7 below. The Amildar of the Seringapatam Taluk should be directed to see to the regular performance of the services in the temples.

Rameswara temple at Rs 108 per annum, Rs 9 per mensem.
Pattabhi Ramaswami temple at Rs. 108 per annum; Rs 9 per mensem
Anjaneyaswami temple at Rs 18 per annum, Rs 1½ per mensem
The chattram and the Sadvarth Dharma at Rs. 165 per annum, Rs 13-12-0 per mensem
Total Rs 33-4-0 per mensem

6. A regular estimate and a plan for thoroughly repairing the chattram should at once be submitted by the Deputy Commissioner to Government in the Muzrai Department.

Muzrai, dated 17th August 1904.

7. The Deputy Commissioner in his letter No. 142, dated 29th December 1903, requests sanction to the entertainment of a care-taker to the chattram on Rs. 5 per month. It is accordingly sanctioned, the charge being met from the sum of Rs. 13-12-0 per mensem allotted for the purpose of the chattram.

8. The petition which one Kurma Subbannachar has presented against archak Ramanujiengar is forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner for enquiry and disposal.

Government Order No. 963-6—G. 199, dated 16th July 1894, directing the resumption of the villages of Turaganur and Basavana halli, T.-Narsipur Taluk, endowed as Inam to the charities of Nowl Krishna Doss at Paschimavahini, Seringagatam Taluk.

(2) Government Proceedings No. 9047-48—R. 1369, dated 2nd December 1894, observing that the resumption of the villages of Turaganur and Basavanahalli in the T.-Narsipur Taluk endowed to the Nowl Krishna Doss Charities ordered in the above proceedings of Government, will continue in full force and effect and that the question of restoring the vritties or their equivalents will be favourably considered after the vrittidars build their Agrahar houses in a locality approved by the Deputy Commissioner and otherwise conform to the conditions of the original grant.

(3) Government Order No. 797-8—Muz. 31-94, dated 25th December 1898, passing orders regarding the arrears of Vritti amounts payable to the Vrittidars of the Agrahar.

(4) Government Proceedings No. 603-4—Muz. dated 24th July 1906, declining to reconsider the above order in regard to the reconstruction of the Agrahar houses on the site selected at Seringapatam.

(5) Correspondence ending with letter No. C. 313 of 19-20, dated 24th February 1920, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, forwarding a statement showing the amount at the credit of the charities and the amount that might be paid to the vrittidars on their fulfilling the conditions laid down in the Government Order dated 2nd December 1894, and stating that two of them, viz., Sahasranamada Lakshminarasimhachar and Sumati Anantachar have built houses on the site selected at Seringapatam, and that the former resides in his house, while the latter has let his house out for the Girls' School there.

Order No 3110-12—Muz. 696-15-11, dated 5th March 1921.

It will be seen from the orders read above, that two villages had been granted as inam for the benefit of a chattram and some temples and also certain agraharikas in Paschimavahini. As the charities had been neglected and no agrahar had been built, the villages were taken under Government management in 1886, and resumed with effect from 1894-95. In the second of the orders read above, the vrittidars were informed that if they built agrahar house in a locality approved by the Deputy Commissioner and otherwise conform to the conditions of the original grant, the question of restoring to them the vritties, or their equivalents, would be favourably considered. The application of the vrittidars for a reconsideration of this order was rejected in the fourth of the orders read above.

2. The Deputy Commissioner now reports that Sumati Anantachar and Sahasranamada Lakshminarasimhachar, two of the vrittidars, have built houses on the sites allotted to them and recommends the payment of the arrears of vritti amounts due to them. The latter is living in the house built by him while the former, who is a let out his house to the Girls' School at Seringapatam. Being Agraharam however Sanskrit Pandit of the Government A.-V. School at Malleswaram, Bangalore, has for essential condition for the continuance of the vritties, or their equivalents, by Brahthe payment of arrears, that the houses should be owned and occupied as yet been mins. But so far as Sumathi Ananthachar is concerned this condition cannot be considered as fulfilled, since the use of the building as a Girls' School cannot be accounted by equivalent to its occupation by a Brahmin. The arrears of vritti amount of new recommendations as regards the payment of the arrears of vritti amount to Sahasranamada Lakshminarasimhachar and the Deputy Commissioner is requested to submit for sanction a bill for the amount due to the latter from 1886 to 1894, explained in para 3 of Government Order 797-8—Muz. 31-94, dated the 25th December 1898.

5. The other questions regarding the claim of Kurma Subbannachar and other vrittidars for the amounts due to them and about the restoration of the vritties to the vrittidars do not call for any consideration for the present as the conditions laid down in the Government Order dated 2nd December 1894 have not been conformed to by them.
